Is Distance Education Right for You?

The following questions will help you gauge your readiness to take part in courses delivered via distance education methods.

1. I am motivated to learn the subject involved.
2. I have 9-12 hours of time a week to devote to a 3-credit class.
3. I am disciplined and work well independently.
4. I have strong reading and writing skills.
5. My performance does not depend on how my peer perform.
6. I am good at keeping myself on task to complete a project.
7. I am comfortable using technology (i.e., video, CD/DVD, the Internet)
8. I have, or have ongoing access to, a computer with Internet access.

If you answered these questions with an "Always" or "Most of the time" answer, then you are a very good candidate for a distance education course. If you answered "Some of the time" or "When I feel like it", you may be more successful in a live class.

Interaction

Visual classroom cues are missing in this environment, so you need to let your instructor know if you are confused or frustrated.

Work Habits

Self discipline is critical when you are the person determining when and where you will study.

Access Your Classes in Blackboard

Blackboard is used in a variety of formats for TVCC classes. When you log into Blackboard you should see a list of every online class you have registered for on the right side of the screen. Let your instructor know if you don't see a class you are enrolled in.

To log into Blackboard:

From the main website page: <http://www.tvcc.cc>

Click the down arrow in the box shown and choose Blackboard

User Name: 1st initial + middle initial + last name
(for example: Jon Jacob Smith = jjsmith)

Password: Last 4 #'s of your Social Security number + underscore + birth year in 4 digit format (for example: 1234_1960)

If you are unable to log on using this information, please contact the help desk at helpdesk@tvcc.cc or call them at 541-881-5777.
